Madden Fails Mornington Again

Legislative Assembly 11th March 2010

On another matter, last week it became apparent that Minister Madden had refused to grant heritage protection to 743 Esplanade, Mornington.

That decision means the loss of a priceless piece of Mornington's heritage and the destruction of one of the principal gateways to the town. Local residents have fought a long, hard but ultimately futile battle to protect the character of this precinct.

I would like to commend Genevieve Rogers, the councillors of the Mornington Peninsula Shire and all who have worked so hard to preserve our living history.
